

Board Pen Pictures

Mahmud Hasan MBE is Director of Apasen: an established provider of social and community services in East London, having been in existence since 1984

Debbie Brady is Project Manager of the Zaccheaus Project: A Methodist Church community project working with and for older people and their carers in Tower Hamlets. Debbie brings perspective of a user group along with wide ranging knowledge of the local community, customer care and advice & guidance.

Katie Burwood is a highly experienced Youth Worker having worked in several settings around Tower Hamlets. She brings a strong set of all round skills and experience, local knowledge and a user group perspective.

Ray Gipson BEM: Is an ex local councillor with strong links within the local community especially around Bow where he is a leading light in The Geezers, a group for active older men run with Age Concern East London. Ray brings a user group/ volunteer driver perspective and wider ranging local knowledge including sport activities.

Mujibur Rahman: brings a user group perspective from local youth work along with experience of mental health, BAME & disability issues.

Enayet Sawar: As a senior manager in St Hildas, Enayet brings a user group perspective. He has a background in Housing Associations and is a school governor. He brings strong local knowledge and experience and skills including customer care, disability networking and mediation.

Dudley Flynn: brings skills in influencing skills, enterprise/ business development, finance & communications from his 27years experience in the financial industry – first with Merrill Lynch and now Julius Baer International

Martin Young: is a barrister who is resident in Tower Hamlets and has a depth of knowledge about the local voluntary and community sector including having been past Chair of East End Homes and Mudchute Farm. Martin has a range of skills including Legal, Housing, Governance and knowledge of the local community.